

NATIONAL INTERSCHOLASTIC ATHLETIC ADMINISTRATORS ASSOCIATION

Jim Teff Achievement Recognition for Professional Development Nomination Form

Each year at the July board meeting, the NIAAA Board of Directors may select one State Coordinator (either Certification or LTI) who developed and implemented a new initiative for their state in the area of professional development during the previous year. This initiative must be innovative, recognized as a best practice and have benefited the athletic administrators in a state, or nationally. Nominations may be submitted by individual NIAAA members or state athletic administrator association boards and must be received in the NIAAA office by July 1 for consideration.

- a. Recipient will receive a $1,000 scholarship to assist with expenses to attend the national conference
- b. Recipient's state will receive scholarships for three individuals to each take one complimentary LTI course taught in that state

Guidelines for the Nomination:

1. The nominee selected should be a member in good standing with their state and the NIAAA.
2. Nominee must be designated by a state athletic administrator association as an LTI or Certification coordinator in that state.
3. The nominee's contribution to professional development should be detailed on the next page of this form.
4. This nomination form must be type written or keyed in, and be postmarked to the NIAAA office by July 1.
